

CABEA Fall Workshop
Business Meeting Minutes
Thursday, October 12, 2006
Forest View Education Center

Meeting called to order; 9:30 a.m.

Welcome

Nathan Aslinger welcomed everyone to the Fall Workshop. Thank you to District 214 for hosting the event.

Treasurer's Report

Shannon Stone submitted the report to Nathan. Our balance is $1990.60. Heather Wilcox; moved to approve the report. Lori Crum; seconded the motion.

IBEA Report

Jim Wermes reminded all that the IBEA Conference is November 1-3, 2006, in Springfield, IL. Please register this week. CABEA is responsible for table decorations at the Friday luncheon. CABEA has nominated our past president, Clyde Cooper, for the Friend of Business Education Award at the IBEA Conference.

Nathan Aslinger recognized Jim for his three years of service as the IBEA representative. Thank you Jim!

New Business

The tag line is on debut on our t-shirts—"Our business is your future." We will also be selling the shirts at the IBEA conference. Get yours today for only $10.00.

Mary Ellen Peterson, from Barrington High School, has expressed interest in becoming our new IBEA representative. No discussion. Jim Wermes; moved to approve her nomination. Ellen Corcoran; seconded the motion.

Bylaws revisions were proposed. No discussion. Heather Wilcox; moved to approve all revisions as presented. Becky French; seconded the motion.

Elections Committee—please contact a committee member if you are interested in serving on the CABEA board. In the spring, the following positions will be open: Secretary, 2nd Vice President and board member(s). Please consult your bylaws for a description of the specific duties/responsibilities for each position.

Service Award—per the bylaws this award will be presented at the Spring Workshop. Please submit your nomination on the form provided to any committee member. The deadline for nominations is December 15, 2006.

Announcements

Dr. Gary Hutchison encouraged all members to attend the IBEA conference. This year marks the 70 anniversary of IBEA. You can still register this week and take advantage of the early-bird rate. There is a full agenda and it promises to be a very good conference. Nathan reminded all that the informal, social gathering at IBEA for CABEA members is 4:15-5:00 p.m. on Thursday.

The Spring Conference will be held on Thursday, April 12, 2007, during the day at DeVry University and Dave and Busters. The two locations are next door to each other in nearby Addison, IL. Please register early—there are only 40 spaces available. If you attend the Fall Workshop, you will receive the first e-mail invitation for the Spring Workshop.

Respectfully submitted,

Lisa Dandre
CABEA Secretary
