Session II: Mad City Money Program

This realistic simulation successfully teaches students about personal financial literacy. Students are given an occupation and salary, spouse and family, student loan debt, credit card debt, and cost of medical insurance to build a monthly budget as they visit numerous merchants and make decisions based on affordability. Website: glcu.org.

Presented by Sue Malo, Marketing Manager and Program Facilitator, Great Lakes Credit Union

Session III: Tips for Coop Programs

Jodie Wachowski is the department chair of the Applied Arts & Technology Department at Maine East High School. She began her teaching career as a cooperative education coordinator. As department chair, she has supported coop and has worked to maintain the offerings during the changes happening in education. Mrs. Wachowski is an Illini alum where she received her BS, a Masters in Vocational Education and her administrative certification.
